Our Forster office is moving

From Monday 31 October, our Forster Customer Service team will operate from the Visitor Information Centre in Little Street.

The team will close the doors on the current customer service point in Breese Parade at 12pm on Friday 28 October, reopening in their new location at 8.30am on Monday 31 October.

You can expect the same friendly faces and same services you've always had.

Forster Library will be staying in Breese Parade.

Spot Joe Rider to win

October is Motorcycle Awareness month.

Between Monday 17 and Friday 21 October, look out for the motorcycle riders wearing the bright yellow 'I am Joe Rider' vests. When you spot them remember what road, suburb and time you spotted 'Joe'. Pull over if it is safe to do so or complete your journey then register your sighting on our website www.midcoast.nsw.gov.au/foerider.

There'll be $50 #ShopMidCoast vouchers given away daily and a grand prize of a $250 #ShopMidCoast voucher at the end of the week.

Teach a Learner Driver workshop

Free workshops for teachers of learner drivers will be held this October. Parents and carers are often the primary driving instructor for a learner driver and benefit from practical advice and a structured approach to helping a learner improve.

The two-hour workshops will be held in:

Gloucester: Tuesday 25 October, 6pm at the MidCoast Council building, Railway Street side entry.

Forster: Thursday 27 October, 6pm, at Marine Rescue NSW, Southern Breakwall, Dolphin Drive, Forster.

Taree: Wednesday 2 November, 6pm, at MidCoast Council, Yalawanyi Ganya, 2 Biripi Way, Taree

Booking is essential. Visit www.midcoast.nsw.gov.au/roadsafety or email road.safety@midcoast.nsw.gov.au.
