

THANKYOU MIDCOAST VOLUNTEERS

It's National Volunteers Week (15 – 21 May) and the perfect time to shout-out to those awesome people who volunteer here on the MidCoast.

Giving generously of time, energy and skills, almost 13,000 of you drive positive change in a diverse range of ways across our region. Your contributions make the MidCoast a better place to live, work and visit.

We are lucky enough to have 1,456 amazing council volunteers helping us deliver services in our libraries and parks, through environmental and cultural projects, in tourism and in many other exciting areas.
