

SPRING EDITION OUT NOW

OUR TOP PICKS FOR THIS SEASON'S EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES ON THE MIDCOAST

With the weather warming up, what better time to get out 'n about and enjoy all our region has to offer.

To help you on your way, we've collated a seasonal snapshot of some of the fun you can expect over the coming months.

Find information about our upcoming School Holiday program, what's on this year for events including National Recycling Week, Biodiversity Month, and Water Week, and a handy pin-up calendar for your fridge to add your own important dates.

Grab our Spring Edition guide at your nearest library, or at one of our customer service points.

To view the Spring Edition online, scan the code or visit midcoast.nsw.gov.au/seasonal-edition

We will also provide updated information for each seasonal event as details are confirmed, so make sure to 'Follow' the page to stay updated.

KEEP UP TO DATE WITH ROADWORKS

We've introduced a new interactive map to help you find out about major road and bridge projects taking place across our region. It highlights works in progress and those coming soon, helping you stay on top of when and where you can expect to see improvements to our transport network. Head online to view it and find out more:

TUNCURRY ROCK POOL CLOSED 14 SEPTEMBER

The Tuncurry Rock Pool will be closed for the full day next Thursday 14 September while a new net is installed.

For safety reasons swimming won't be possible during this time, but why not head over to the new water playground in Vincent Fazio Park.

The Tuncurry Water Playground is an all-age, all-ability water splash pad with a water slide, water tower and active water play equipment. It's open every day, 10am to 5pm, and is free of charge to use.

NAKED & NUDE ART PRIZE 2023 NOW OPEN

The much anticipated biennial Naked & Nude exhibition is back again at Manning Regional Art Gallery.

It is the only art award of its kind in Australia, attracting entries from artists at all stages of their careers and working in all mediums.

Presented in partnership with the Friends of the Manning Regional Art Gallery, this year's exhibition is not to be missed.

For more details and gallery opening times, visit mrag.midcoast.nsw.gov.au where you can also explore other current and upcoming exhibitions.
