

REACH BEYOND

NSW SENIORS FESTIVAL 11-24 MARCH

There's no better time to celebrate your seniorhood, with a jam-packed program of free activities to enjoy during Seniors Festival.

It's all part of the largest celebration for seniors in the southern hemisphere, where you can try something new, meet new people, and celebrate being a senior on the MidCoast.

Some of the activities include:

- * Bingo
- * Introduction to Ballroom and Jazz Dancing
- * Picture Perfect Photos
- * Chair Yoga
- * Movie screenings
- * Macramé
- * Nature Walks
- * Art and Craft Workshops
- * Ukulele concert
- * Music by the Book concert

Our Seniors Festival program is available on our website midcoast.nsw.gov.au/seniorsfest or at your local library.

Bookings are essential.

Be quick to reserve your place as numbers are limited.

LIBRARY CLOSURE - 4 MARCH

Our Libraries will be closed all day on Monday 4 March for a staff development and training day. eResources will be available as normal.

CARBON FARMING WORKSHOP - 2 MARCH

Learn about a new arrangement to support local carbon farming and biodiversity at a workshop in Gloucester on Saturday 2 March. Bookings essential. For more info visit midcoast.nsw.gov.au/Carbon-Farming-Workshop

BULKY WASTE COLLECTION - TIME IT RIGHT

It's that time of the year again but before you run out and leave your bulky waste items on the kerb, it's important to double check the collection dates for your zone. Place rubbish out no earlier than the weekend before or you could be fined.

The collection kicks off in the Manning area next week, with residents of the following locations invited to place waste out this weekend:

Belbora*, Black Head, Bucca Wauka*, Bunyah*, Burrell Creek, Diamond Beach, Dyers Crossing, Failford, Firefly, Hallidays Point, Hillville, Kiwarrak, Koorainghat, Krumbach, Kundibakh, Nabic township, Possum Brush, Rainbow Flat, Red Head, Tallwoods Village, Tipperary, Wang Wauk.

* Addresses within former Greater Taree City Council area

Keep an eye out for the brochure in your letterbox which explains collection dates, acceptable items and how to sort items into two separate piles.

Visit midcoast.nsw.gov.au/bulkywaste for further information and to find out when it's your turn.
